

Press Release

More Information: Steele Bremner, 545-3623

July 1, 2015

For Immediate Release

Author's Table Returns to Waccamaw Library

The Waccamaw Library proudly presents the Author's Table, a series of discussions of great new reads with the authors themselves. The series is free, and all events will take place in the Waccamaw Library Auditorium, 41 St. Paul Place, Pawleys Island.

July's events are as follows:

Tuesday July 14, 5:30-7:30 pm

Richard Lutman

Richard Lutman lives in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. He has a MFA in Writing from Vermont College. He has taught writing and literature courses at several colleges, and short story classes as part of Coastal Carolina's Lifelong Learning program. His fiction has appeared in Verdad, Slow Trains, The Green Silk Journal, Dark Sky Magazine, The Bicycle Review, Epiphany Magazine, The Petigru Review, Deep South Magazine, and many others. He has also won local and national awards for his short stories, nonfiction and screenplays.

Tuesday, July 28, 5:30-7:30 pm

David Griffin and Wanda Spannuth

David Griffin has published a novel, Monk In The Cellar, plus two novellas and seven anthologies of his short stories. He has also published a book on fly fishing.

In addition, his stories have been published in Stone Voices magazine, Charleston Style, Still Points Journal, The Utica Phoenix, Authors Bazaar, e-Humor Anthology, Rigorous Mortis Humor Anthology, Editor- Good Reading and Mohawk Valley Living.

After finishing her career in Human Services Wanda Spannuth was encouraged to pursue her passion for writing by author Lisa Doan.

She completed her first children's book, "Meesha's Secret," in 2013, followed by "The Turtle and the Pond Life" in 2014. Her books teach life lessons in hope, courage, acceptance and tolerance.

Wanda is currently working on a one-act play based on "The Turtle and the Pond Life", will continue with additional children's books and hopes to complete a novel based on some of her work in Human Services.